Dear Twin Cities Siding Professionals,

Thank you very much for the excellent job you did residing our home this winter. From the day we met Terry at the Home & Garden Show last spring, we have been impressed with your company's workmanship and professionalism. We are glad that our rotting, wavy siding is gone and the underneath damage repaired. We feel secure with the new James Hardie siding.

The installation of the new siding looks great – tight seams, well-chalked – a quality job! The crew of Adam, Alex, and Scott worked very hard, even on the bitter cold days. They arrived on time, worked hard until dusk, and cleaned up the area very neatly. Adam clearly explained any problems that they uncovered when the old siding was removed, and offered great solutions and quality repairs. He also made suggestions for updating the style of the exterior of our home, and we love the simplified, cleaner look. Adam, Alex, and Scott were good, careful workers, and were very courteous and considerate of us and our property.

We look forward to having TCSP back in the spring to paint. We highly recommend your company to our friends and neighbors.

Thanks again,
