Dear Terry,

Thank you! Thank you for delivering what you had promised!

When we met with you to discuss your approach to the task of residing our house, you helped us understand the product and then described how the crew would proceed. It seemed clear to us that you knew what you were doing, and we trusted that if anything didn't measure up, we could call on you.

There was never a need to call. Nathan and his crew were everything you promised, and even more. They were courteous, prompt, thorough, timely, and professional in every way. When there was any question about what we might want, Nathan checked with us first to describe the options and then proceeded exactly as we had discussed. There were no "surprises" and never a need to redo any part of the project. Nathan's crew evidently picked up from his disposition, as every person was pleasant and respectful.

I would recommend TC Siding to anyone! Please convey our thanks to Nathan and his crew. You are all to be commended for your excellent work!

Gratefully,

John and Gayle Hallin
